

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years,
Now I am contented
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.

*I sought the Lord, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.
Those who look to him are radiant, and their faces shall never be ashamed.
Psalm 34:4-5*

Rachel Lambert Rogers, was born June 26, 1912 in Goldston, NC to the late Fisher Cass Reaves and Cora Rives Reaves.

In 1930, Rachel married James Lambert and to that union they were blessed with three children, the late James E. Lambert, Alphonso George Lambert and Cora Webb.

In 1960, Rachel moved her family to New Jersey, where she married James (JT) Rogers.

Rachel worked for Gifford County School System, Gifford County, NC and Christ Hospital, Jersey City, NJ.

In 1976, Rachel moved back to Goldston, NC to be closer to her siblings whom she loved. She rejoined St. Luke United Church of Christ under the leadership of Pastor Drury Underwood. She was an active member of the Usher Board, Trustee Board and she sang on the Choir.

Rachel loved and adored her children especially her sons, Earl and George and her daughter, Cora was her best friend and confidant.

Rachel was preceded in death by her parents, Fisher and Cora; two husbands, James Lambert and James Rogers, two sons, Earl and George; one granddaughter, Terry Ann Webb; seven sisters, Ada, Gladys, Helen, Francis, Dalia, Lillian and Annie; and one brother, William (Bill).

Rachel is survived by her daughter, Cora Webb; daughter-in-law, Gladys Lambert; fifteen grandchildren; eighteen great grandchildren and ten great-great grandchildren, godson, Kevin Marion, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Special Thanks to her daughter-in-law, Gladys Lambert for your undying love and support.
