John Edward "Butch" King was born on June 29, 1949 to Annie King Young and Stanley King in Pittsburg, PA.

Butch as he was affectionately known, married the love of his life, Hattie Brower King. Butch was a 1967 graduate of Johnsonville High School. He enjoyed playing basketball and football which were passions that followed him throughout his life. His secondary education was received at Essex College in Newark, NJ.

Butch's early Christian education was received at Spout Springs Presbyterian Church and later at Johnsonville A.M.E. Zion.

Butch held numerous positions in many capacities. His latest public employment was with GKN Drivelines in Sanford, NC.

Butch was preceded in death by his son, Sinyakee and his parents.

He is survived by his wife, Hattie of the home; two sons, Robert King (Patricia), and Anthony Rogers (Tressa), both of Lillington, NC; one brother, Willie Young of Cameron, NC; twelve grandchildren, god-children, Darrius Brower (Kim), Aaron Brower (Erika), Brianna Brower and Lamont Hope; six sisters-in-law; five brothers-in-law and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
