Obituary

Our life here upon this earth is just a passing day, we flourish and bloom as the flower of the field then fade away. A beautiful life closed on Friday, December 28, 2018 when Jeffrey Eugene McAuley answered the Heavenly Father's summons. Whereas God will wipe away all tears from our eyes, there shall be no more death, no more sorrow nor pain.

Jeffrey Eugene McAuley was born to Charles Eugene McAuley and Frances Marie James McAuley on March 16, 1966 in Lee County North Carolina. He was educated and graduated in 1984 in the Lee County public school system.

He was preceded in death by his father and mother, Charles and Frances McAuley and sister, Tammy Brown.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving wife, Lolita McAuley; four children, Amil McAuley, Amon McAuley and Aaliyah Massey all of Montezuma, Georgia and Antonio Singletary of Birmingham, Alabama; grandson, Kaden Massey of Montezuma, Georgia; a beloved grand-mother, Rovina James of Sanford, North Carolina; one brother, Derrick Harris (Naomi) of Sanford, North Carolina; father and mother-in-law, Rev. Gerald and Jilverlyn Cole both of Sanford, North Carolina and a host of uncles, aunts, cousin and friends.

Death Is Nothing At All

Death is nothing at all.
I have only slipped away into the next room.
I am I, and you are you. Whatever we were to each other
That we are still. Call me by my old familiar name.
Speak to me in the easy way you always used.
Put no difference into your tone.
Wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow.
Laugh as we always laughed At the little jokes we always enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, pray for me.
Let my name be ever the household word that it always was.
Let it be spoken without effort; Without the ghost of a shadow in it.
Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was.
There is absolute unbroken continuity.
What is death but a negligible accident?
Why should I be out of mind, Because I am out of sight?
I am waiting for you for an interval;
Somewhere very near all is well. Nothing is past; nothing is lost.
One brief moment and all will be as it was before.
How we shall laugh at the trouble of parting when we meet again!
