Ganny Girl Ava

Your wings were ready

But my heart was not.

Today it would be wonderful

To see you smile. But

Heaven lent you to this world

For just a little while.

And in a short but precious time

You brought along much

Love and all that love is with

You are now in heaven up above.

Your leaving caused so many tears

And such a lot of pain but God

Needed one more angel

So he took mine back again.

Obituary

Ava Na'Rayya Torain was born on January 6, 2019 in Orange County, North Carolina. She departed this life late Friday evening.

Ava was the daughter of Attallah Morrison and Lamont Torain. She had three brothers, Ayden Speller of Durham, North Carolina, Khalil Torain of Texas, and Lamont Torain Jr. of Roxboro, North Carolina; one sister, Destinee Torain of Roxboro, North Carolina; grandparents, Joyce Morrison of Durham, North Carolina, Derick Morrison (Jacki) of Suffolk, Virginia, Roberta Scott (deceased) of Durham, North Carolina, Ronnie Torain and Sharkita Torain of Roxboro, North Carolina; great grandparents, Margie Brown of Durham, North Carolina and Doc Woods of Hillsborough, North Carolina; godmother, Jennifer Thompkins of Norris Town, Pennsylvania; and a host uncles, aunts and cousins.

Ava was such a joy to have, everywhere she went people fell in love with her. She was our perfect little angel. Ava had so much spunk and personality with her from day one. Ava did a lot of her expressions with her mouth. She loved to kiss, and would let you know by puckering up her lips. Our Ava was know by many names: "Ganny Girl", "Scoot", "String Bean", "Aunt Betty", "Granny Whoot", "Charli", "Lil Miss Diva" and "The Boss". Ava Na'Rayya Torain definitely won't be forgotten and will remain in our hearts.
