

Mom

God saw Mom getting tired
And the cure was not to be
So he put His arms around her
And He whispered "Come with me"
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands laid to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best
It broke our hearts to lose her
But she didn't go alone
For a part of us went with her
The day God took Mom home.

-Lovingly submitted by her children, Sherrie and Tony Jr.

Maw-Maw

There isn't a grandma sweeter than a grandma just like you.
One filled with love and laughter in everything you do.
I've learned a lot through the years, oh Maw-Maw can't you see.
Live, laugh, and love is what you taught to me.

-Saniya, Camden, Shane, and Zander

"Hope appears on the horizon each morning in the form of a brand new day."

Obituary

Charlotte Harris Rogers passed away peacefully on April 28, 2019. She was born to the late James and Emeline Reaves Harris on October 28, 1951 in Pittsboro, NC.

She graduated from Horton High School in 1970. She was united in holy matrimony to Tony Rogers on December 16, 1972. To this union two beautiful children were born; Sherrie and Tony Jr.

She worked many years at Chatham Mills and was later employed and retired from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in December 2013.

Charlotte was a loving wife and dedicated mother. She treasured and loved her children embracing every moment she spent with them. She especially loved her role as “Maw-Maw.” Charlotte has four grandchildren whom she loved tremendously and they loved her just as much. Her eyes lit up every time they were around. Charlotte joined Alston Chapel United Holy Church at an early age where she loved singing in the choir. She also worked in the church in any capacity that was needed.

Her parents, James and Emeline Harris, and a brother, Ernest Harris preceded her in death.

She leaves to cherish her loving memories a devoted and caring husband, Tony Sr. of the home; her children, Sherrie Rogers Baldwin (Howard) of Chapel Hill, NC, and Tony Rogers Jr. (Alicia) of Pittsboro, NC; four beautiful grandchildren; Saniya, Shane, Camden, and Zander; one sister, Nellie Farrington; two brothers, James Harris (Minnie), and Thomas “Chick” Harris (Doris) all of Pittsboro, NC, and host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
