

The Broken Chain

*We little knew that day,
God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.*

*It broke our hearts to lose you.
You did not go alone.
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.*

*You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.*

*Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.*

Obituary

*I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course,
I have kept the faith: 2 Timothy 4:7*

Barbara “Faye” Lassiter was born February 11, 1956 to Lewis Milton McCrimmon and Ruby Lassiter. On June 24, 2019 God plucked another flower for his heavenly garden.

Faye received her education from Chatham County Schools. She received Christ and joined Rose Hill AME Zion Church under the leadership of Rev. Toddy Brooks and now Rev. Lynn Brandon.

She loved to travel with her church family and cook for many functions. Her favorite song was "God is My Everything". Often called by many names stuck as Miss Annie, Barbara Sue, Albert and Sally Mae, but everyone that knew her called her a friend. She was a family person she loved her kids, grandkids and anybody’s kids that she came in contact with. She raised the entire neighborhood and kids from miles around. You could often find her at any sports event that she knew about. She was the best cheerleader.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Louis Crump; her mother, Ruby Lassiter; aunt, Mae Ruth Harrington; brother, Julius Lassiter; great grandson, Jordan Crump and goddaughter, Katrina Lassiter.

She leaves to cherish her memories: two daughters, Charity Ross (Lamar) of Pittsboro, NC, and Kimberly Crump of Moncure, NC; four sons, Louis Crump Lassiter of the home, Barry Crump (Nina), Reginald Crump and Keith Crump of Sanford, NC; one sister, Claudia Lassiter of Moncure; two brothers: Roger Lassiter (Mary) of Moncure, NC and Jeffrey McCrimmon (Loleta) of Sanford, NC; her father, Lewis Milton McCrimmon (Linda) of Chapel Hill, NC; eighteen grand-children; six great grandchildren; god children, Johnny Norman (LaQuanda), Perry Norman, Charity Baker, Darlene Taylor (William), Orishio Riggsbee and O'Brian Gunter; dear friends: Sandra McGhee, Mary Norman, James Hackney (Alice) and Grace Baker and a host of nieces, nephews and other dear friends.
