

God Saw You Getting Tired...

*God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be
He wrapped her in His loving arms and whispered, "come with Me"*

*She suffered much in silence her spirit did not bend
She faced her pain with courage until the very end*

*She tried so hard to stay with us
But her fight was not in vain*

*God took her to his loving home
And freed her from the pain*

Obituary

Ms. Evelyn Alston, “Tootsie” was born in Gainesville, Florida on June 24, 1941 and is the daughter of the late Willie Mae Smith of Gainesville, Florida.

Evelyn departed her life on October 4, 2019 at Carver Living Center where she resided.

In her life she loved to sing and she was a singer in the band, “Doug Clark and the Hot Nuts” for many years. She found the Lord in 1987 and continued to sing at many churches in the surrounding areas and churches far away. She became an ordained minister at Rise and Shine in Durham, North Carolina until her health began to fail her at the end. She really loved the Lord.

She leaves to cherish her memories: daughter, Cynthia Foushee (Rev. Ira) of Erie, Pennsylvania; oldest granddaughter, Kutana Warren of Erie, Pennsylvania; great-granddaughter, Mirror Manning of Erie, Pennsylvania; five grandsons of Erie, Pennsylvania; eight great-grandchildren of Erie, Pennsylvania; ex-husband, Frank Doug Alston (Mary) and a host of family and friends.
