"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full I've savored much,
Good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Wayne Lee Foushee, 68 of Chapel Hill, NC entered into eternal rest early Thursday, morning, October 24, 2019 at Signature Healthcare of Chapel Hill. Wayne was born February 3, 1951 to the late Mr. Clyde Foushee and Mrs. Mattie Edwards Foushee.

He received his education from Chapel Hill High School shortly after high schools were desegregated. Following graduation he became employed at the University of North Carolina printing department, a dedicated employee for over forty years until his retirement and declining health.

He was a quiet man of very few words, a kind man with a charming smile and calm unique style. He enjoyed reading, listening to soft music and spending time in the yard.

Children, he never had any but loved all that crossed his path of life. His nieces and nephews were his joys. They could always expect Christmas gifts from "Uncle Wayne".

His feet are no longer in the sand His foot prints are imbedded in the sand of time; he leaves to cherish his memories one sister, Eva F. Pettiford of Greensboro, NC; two brothers, John R. Foushee (Pearl) and Gearld Foushee (Evelyn) all of Durham, NC; three uncles, Mr. Garland Foushee, and Mr. Johnnie Johnson of Chapel Hill, NC and Mr. Robert Weaver and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
