James's Last Request

Please don't say that I gave up, just say that I gave in
Don't say that I lost the battle, for it was God's to win;
Please don't say how good or bad I was, but that I did my best.
Just say I tried to love everyone who ever crossed my path,
Thank God for my soul is resting, and thank God I've been blessed
Thank God for all who loved me
Praise God – who loved me Best

Obituary

Mr. James Arthur aka "Cuda" Monroe was born on August 25, 1947 in Sanford, NC to the late Alexander Monroe and Henrietta Newby Monroe. "Cuda" was the oldest of five children.

"Cuda" as he was affectionately known was a very friendly and outgoing person who never met strangers and could get along with anyone. He was educated in the Lee County School system.

"Cuda" was preceded in death by his father, Alexander Monroe and his sister, Mrs. Emma Jean Gooding.

He leaves to cherish his memory: a son, James Richmond of Sanford, NC; his mother, Henrietta Monroe of the home; two brothers, Charles Monroe (Alfreda) and Michael Monroe; a sister, Joyce Cox (Bobby) all of Sanford, NC; two granddaughters, Kourtney Ellerby and Jillian Roberts; one aunt, Maggie Newby and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins who loved him dearly.
