

Mrs. Ollie Belle McLucas

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full I've savored much,
Good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Acknowledgment

Words cannot adequately express the gratitude we have for our family and friends who have consoled us during this time of bereavement. Your presence, prayers, love, and many acts of kindness have truly sustained us. Again, we say Thank You and may God continue to bless you all.

Obituary

Mrs. Ollie Belle McLucas was born to the late Scott White and the late Annie Minter White Buie on January 14, 1934 in Lee County North Carolina. She entered into eternal rest on Saturday Nov, 30 2019.

She was married to the late James Willie “Mac” McLucas and to this union seven kids were born.

At an early age, Ollie made the decision to make Jesus her personal Savior. She united with Wall Street Baptist Church (now First Calvary Baptist Church) in Sanford where she was baptized and actively engaged in many ministries over the course of the years.

She was recently honored during the church's 139th year celebration.

Ollie attended Lee County Training School, Central Carolina Community College and Campbell University.

Ollie worked in various industries over the years, including manufacturing, servicing and early childhood education. After her retirement she and Mr. McLucas worked for several years as caretakers for First Calvary Baptist Church.

Ollie was an active member in the community. She participated in the "Behind the Walls Ministry." She enjoyed going to the Sanford Enrichment Center to socialize and play games.

Physical fitness was very important to Ollie. She was a member of Sanford Cardiac rehab group for over 20 years. She participated in Lee County Senior Olympic Games. Sports included Basketball, Tennis, Shuffleboard and Bowling. She became an Olympic Champion, earning seven gold, five silver, and four bronze medals.

Ollie loved to travel. Before his death, Mr. McLucas and Ollie traveled extensively on the high seas visiting places such as: Jamaica, Cancun, Bermuda and Aruba. After Mr. McLucas passed, she continued her travel to places such as West Memphis TN, Dallas TX, Washington DC, Oklahoma and Atlanta. Over the last few years Ollie favorite vacation destination was the North Carolina Outer Banks. She enjoyed visiting Cape Hatteras lighthouse; taking the ferry to Ocracoke Island. She also enjoyed visiting The Wright Brothers National Flight Museum, Avon Pier.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Willie “Mac” McLucas; parents, Scott and Annie White; sisters, Scottie and Elma; brothers; Richard and Simpson, and sons; David and Wayne McLucas.

She leaves not to mourn but to cherish her memories: daughters, Elma McLucas of Sanford, NC; Shirley Bland (Ernest) of Apex, NC; Tina McLucas Broussard (Dan) of Dallas, TX and Carol Talley (Rickey) of West Memphis, AR; son, Wille Lee McLucas (Tiffany) of Richmond, VA; grandchildren: Erica Sanders, Chimela Brooks, Yukita McLucas, David Heck, Jeconias Heck, Quintina Alford, Joshua Heck, Kelsey Heck, Jonathan Rogers; great-grandchildren, Calenesi Barringer, Zachary Barringer, James Jones, Cameron Heck, Paige Hyde, Cade Heck, Tyler Heck, Jaydes Heck, Ava Alford, and Romeo Rogers; and brother, Donald White (Viola) of Sanford, NC. She also leaves a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.
