Acknowledgment

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.
 Perhaps you sent a floral piece, if so we saw it there.
 Perhaps you sang a cheerful song, if so we heard it all.
 Perhaps you prayed a sincere prayer, or came to pay a call.
 Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.
 Perhaps you prepared a tasty dish, or maybe furnished a car.
 Perhaps you rendered a service unseen, near at hand or from afar. Whatever was the kindly part, we thank you...oh so very much!

The Seasons of Eunice Junior Peoples

A TIME TO BE BORN

Eunice Junior Peoples, better known as “Jr.”, entered this world on September 22, 1947 in Chatham County, NC to the late Eunice Peoples and Rosa Hart Peoples. He entered into God’s Kingdom on June 15, 2020. He was the youngest of seven children.

A TIME TO PLANT And A TIME TO PLUCK That Which Is Planted

On February 22, 1974, “Jr.” married Martha Craven and from this union, there was a family of four with a son, Marcus and a daughter, Eulishia. It was many years later that they decided to add to their family with Carlos, Tosha, Anthony, Justin, and Royal, thus completing their family. They also had a special extended family of Henry Fuchs, Melanie Mintzer, and children Samuel and Miriam.

“Jr.” changed from parent to grandparent when his grandson, Jamie Jr was born in ’93. He would then go on to have six more; Kadejah, Shayla, Kenya, Kalig, Jayla and CJ. Then changed from grandparent to great-grandparent in 2018 with the birth of Kyrle, and 2019 with Jalen.

He always showed love, appreciation, and happiness for his family and it was his greatest joy. “Jr.” loved to sing and would sing to whoever was around. He brought joy to each and every occasion.

Labor, AS IT IS A GIFT OF GOD

“Jr.” began his Christian growth at Union Grove AME Zion Church, Bear Creek, NC at a young age. He later joined White Rock Holiness Church, Chapel Hill, NC, where he became a Deacon and served until his health declined.

A TIME TO DIE

God saw the road was becoming rougher and the hills were getting harder to climb. He said to “Jr.” “Peace Be Thine..”. “Jr.” closed his loving and weary eyes and entered the gates of Heaven, where his wife, Martha met him with open arms. “Jr.” fought a long, courageous battle and found his rest and rewards.

A TIME TO MOURN..

“Jr.” was preceded in death by his parents, Eunice and Rosa Peoples; siblings, Flossie, Bertha, Clarence, Milton, Mattie, and Mary; his son, Marcus; and last but not least, his wife, Martha.
