When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

*When tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand, the angel
Came and called my name, and took me
By my hand; The angel said my place
Was ready in heaven far above, and that
I'd have to leave behind all those I dearly
Love. But when I walked through Heaven's
Gates, I felt so much at home, for God
Looked down, smiled at me and said
"Welcome Home". So when tomorrow
Starts without me, don't think we're Far apart for every time you think of Me. I'm right there in your heart.*

Obituary

Llywen also known as "Bro" was born on May 10, 1935, in Harnett County, North Carolina to the late George and Essie McDougald. He attended and graduated from Shawtown High School in Lillington, NC.

Llywen served his country faithfully for eight years and he was honorably discharged from the United States Army on August 6, 1965, Kingston, Washington. His awards and decoration included the Marksmanship Badge and the Good Conduct Medal.

Llywen met Lizzie in 1969 and married the love of his life Lizzie Mae Blue on August 21, 1976. Llywen was a dedicated church member of Living Stones of Faith, Cameron, North Carolina under the leadership of Pastor Jim Graves. He was a firm believer in God and a friend to everyone he met. Llywen served faithfully in the Army of the Lord until GOD called him home. Llywen was a "Jack of all Trades". He enjoyed auto mechanics, drawing, crafts, and motivational speaking.

Llywen was preceded in death by his parents: George and Essie McLean McDougald; brothers, Luzen and Avalon McDougald.

He leaves to cherish precious memories: his devoted wife, Lizzie McDougald; three sons, Richard (Barbara), Michael (Vivian), and Johnathan (Shelia); daughter; Karen (George); sister; Ogletrea McDougald; brother; Carnell McDougald; special aunt; Lillian Ferrel and a host of grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, and nephews.
