

"I'm Free"

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call.
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow:
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full I've savored much,
Good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Obituary

On Wednesday evening, January 6, 2021, God touched the soul of Mrs. Tammy Rone, rescuing her from labor to reward. She was the daughter of Bernice and Jaqueline Moore. Tammy was born on September 27, 1970, in Orange County, North Carolina.

Tammy was educated through the Chatham County School System and later attended Central Carolina Community College in Sanford, NC.

She was employed for 18 years by UNC- Hospital in the Health Information Management Department as an Operation Specialist (Release of Information).

Tammy attended Alston Chapel United Holy Church early in life.

She leaves to cherish her memories, a devoted and loving husband of 28 years, Henry Louis Rone “Sam”; her parents, Bernice and Jaqueline Neal Moore; sister, Tiffany Moore; several uncles, aunts, six sisters-in-law, three brothers-in-law, and a host of nieces, nephews family, and friends.
