From that union followed three sisters: Luella, Katherine, Valerie: her four brothers Reginald, Jack, Curtis who has proceeded and Bernard her younger brother. Zenola Better Known as “Z”, is what most people called her, she loved basketball as a teenager, so she played her high school years for Cooley High school in Detroit MI. Zenola was always the life of the party and being the life of the party. She loved to dance. And, if you weren't on the dance floor she would come get you up and make you dance. Z always helped and gave a helping hand when people was in need, even if it was her last; she was a giver. Z would also listen to how you felt and what you had to say, until you said something she didn't like to hear. Then she would let you know how she felt about the situation. She wasn't a bias person, so she wouldn't take sides rather you were right or wrong, family or not. She was a hard-working woman who worked hard for the cleaners for 20+ years. Zenola was easy going person and people loved to be around her, she had a sense of humor that people loved...

Thessalonians 4: 16-18

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.
