Obituary

Deborah Ann Manning (Debbie) was born on January 12, 1952, in Detroit, Michigan to John H. and Donna M. Warren. Deborah accepted Christ at an early age, and she loved God. Deborah attended Detroit Public schools where she began to love music of all genres. She was an avid music lover but her favorite music style was jazz (Jean Luc Ponty). Debbie loved to meet new people and to shop, she loved clothing and jewelry, nice furniture, and household items. Debbie loved to try different types of foods, while enjoying family and friends. Debbie enjoyed the holidays and looked forward to hugs, kisses, playing cards, dancing, talking, and creating everlasting memories. She loved sporting events, concerts, plays, boat rides and the beautiful summer weather. She enjoyed gardening with her Mommy and talking on the phone with her several times a day. She loved her family and the precious time she spent with every person showing that pretty smile.

Deborah enjoyed working as an administrative assistant in Detroit MI, Cincinnati OH, and Augusta, GA and held different positions throughout her many years of working. Deborah finally landed a job that she absolutely loved North Fork, Southern in Dearborn, she was happy working with this company and transferred when North Fork, Southern moved to the Augusta Georgia area where she resided for many years. While in Augusta Georgia and working at North Fork, Southern, Deborah met and married Ivor Manning. While living in Georgia, Deborah began to develop health problems, she took an early retirement and decided to come back to Michigan to be closer to family. Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.
