The Obituary

Linel Quinn, or as most know him, Ralph, and a few as Pretty Boy, was born February 27, 1990 to his loving mother, Linda Fay Quinn. The love that mom had for her baby boy, had no limits. He got away with everything. His nother preceded him in death.

Ralph was the sixth child born to the family of five boys. Von, Fred, Tony, Adidas and Sade. Linel graduated from Mackenzie High School, and during that time he developed his love for politics and debating. Ralph was known to debate everything, Fred at times would call him the political.

Ralph grew to popularity as one of Deacon Harvey Reid's work assistants. Ralph would be seen working or sitting, not working or even in the pulpit thinking he was the bishop. Whether at New St. Paul or the Cathedra, it would be of no surprise to hear Deacon Reed yelling "(RALPH, RALPH)" get back to work.

In 2010 Ralph moved out west, where he pursued a career in Corrections and other career opportunities. While there he would become best friends with Joseph (Jo), and Tiara (Carter), whom him loved dearly.

No matter what state he was in, Ralph was known for helping with true intentions.

Linel Quinn made his transition on March 26, 2023. He leaves behind to cherish his memory, his brothers, uncles, aunts, cousins, nephews, nieces, church family and many friends.

Hey Ralph... whats up bro, this is Adidas I just wanted to tell you that I'm a lil mad that you kept your distance. But at the same time I understand why now. See brother mama raised us to be tough - most of us played football, ran track, basketball, some of us even ran the streets. Oooh but not you Pretty boy you wanna learn all the presidents at the age of 9, you wanna travel to Nebraska to run for mayor, you wanna go against the system for a man wrongfully accused, you don't smoke, drink, no tattoos, like mama raised us. I came to find out that the discipline you had was way tougher than most people I know. For its the things that you say No to that God blesses you with a Yes! I love you brother... we gon' miss you but I'm sure you gon' miss us more cause its just the kinda love you had in your heart. So you, Mama, Vaughn, and Grama... please continue to watch over us. We love you baby brother! Forever the first Black president we salute you for being more than a good and faithful servant. You was a great Lil brother and a good role model for anybody who actually paid attention. I'm so glad you have your mansion, now you most definitely deserve it. Fred,Patrick, Sade, Cherrie, Tony , and myself gone think of you and try to do things to make you proud in remembrance of you we love you Ralpho Salute 😊

Well the time has come to say goodbye to you little brother as much as it hurts me to do so . But before I do I would like to say thank you for the laugh,cry and fun we had together in this roller coaster we call life. Now to the family the Bible says to be absent from this body is to be present with the Lord Amen .

- Frederick Myers

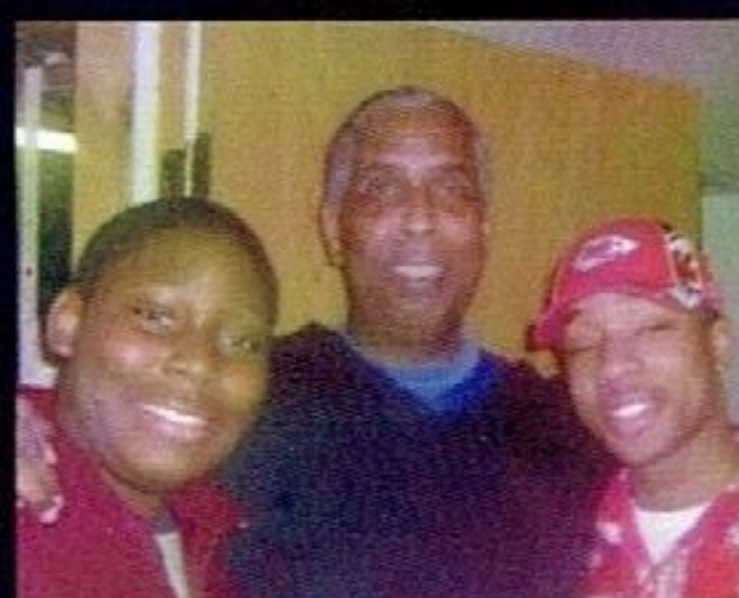

To my beloved brother, thank you for the fun ideas that you shared with me. As I reflect on, I think back on my life, and I see how you help me, the better brother, encouraging me to look again to the hills, which comes my Help.. With welcoming arms Ralph, I know that you were welcome. I know your mom looked up and her pretty boy running into those Pearly Gates. I know Von looked over there and said Here is my brother. Mattie had been waiting to greet you as well with the warm embrace. In all, I am over Joyed knowing you, my brother, and forever in my heart.

- Aries Myers

I find myself reflecting on the memories we shared. Our conversations on eschatology and other biblical subjects were unprecedented and phenomenal at best. His laughter, kindness, and unwavering support have left an indelible mark on my heart, and I am grateful for the time we had together. Linel's memory will live on. Rest in heaven bro!
