Obituary

Lemuel Steward Minion was born May 12, 1985, in Detroit, Michigan to Alvin Steward Minion and Conchetta Thompson.

Lemuel was the third child of nine children. Two brothers Edwin Minion and Emanuel Thompson who preceded him in death.

Lem went to Denby high School and graduated in 2005. He also went on to a vocational school and earned a completion of certificate in building trades in 2006. It was one of his passions. He was always handy and crafty and loved putting things together for construction projects.

He was very proud of his success which he always talked about and shared especially with his siblings. He loved to work so much. He loved to listen to music and working on computer technologies. Which was one of his last jobs before COVID pandemic started. He was very intelligent, always learning and reading new things. He was very kindhearted and giving to his family and friends whether it be money, time, or advice. He was very loyal and more than our brother. He was a friend.

He leaves to cherish and carry his legacy. His children, his mother Conchetta, his siblings Marcus, Marcellas, Harry, EJ, Sam, Edward, Monica, and Melissa. His nephews: Jacalvin, Jacoby, Montavious, L.J. His nieces: Sophia and Victoria. A host of friends and family. He will truly be missed. RIP Lil Bro!

Thessalonians 4: 16-18

For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.
