Obituary

Patricia Randolph White was born June 3, 1961 in Woodbine, GA, and she was the daughter of the late Herbert and Louise Randolph.

Patricia White received her formal education from the public schools of Charlton County, GA. She accepted Christ as her personal Savior and was a member of Solid Rock Christian Church.

She was filled with Love, Joy, and Peace She cared about humanity and was always willing to bless others with words of encouragement, a friendly smile, or a hilarious joke. Her collard greens and chitterlings were spectacular and requested for family gatherings. An avid fisher, she spent many days at a river or ocean catching fish. Planting a spring garden or singing and listening to gospel music gave her gratification. She loved her family and friends and would frequently call them “just to hear their voice.”

She was preceded in death by her sisters Geneva Randolph and Darleen White, her brother Jerome Randolph, and her son Michael Nixon.

She leaves to cherish her two sons, Hayward Nixon (Cynthia) and David Nixon (Hoboken, GA); two precious grandchildren Devante Nixon and Aubrey Nixon; sisters Zeolla Grimes of Waycross, GA, Lorene Randolph of Valdosta, GA, and Annie Randolph of Hoboken, GA; brothers Herbert Randolph, Jr. (Gloria) of Bradenton, FL, and Jimmy Randolph (Sabrina) of Valdosta, GA. Nephews John Randolph (Joy), E. Andre Hill, Johnny White, Jr., Tony Randolph, and Malik Randolph; Nieces Valerie Richardson (Malcolm), Andrea Williams and Kimberley Williams; and a host of many nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

Recessional

*Farewell our sister, farewell our love,
We thank God who sent you from above...
For the time was short but long enough,
To know God knows what's best for us.
Farewell our sister, farewell our friend,
We know we shall meet once again.
