

A Celebration of the Life of Kathleen (Kitty) Ladd Ward

February 2, 1932 ~ May 3, 2021
First Parish in Hingham (Old Ship Church)
Unitarian Universalist
September 25, 2021

Prelude	Pavane pour une infante defunte	Maurice Ravel
Opening Words	Rev. Kenneth Read-Brown	Minister, First Parish in Hingham (Old Ship Church)
Reading	The Guest House, by Rumi	read by Beth Lilly
Hymn	O God Our Help	Christopher Nickelson-Mann
Reading	Let Evening Come, by Jane Kenyon	read by Karen Zippler-Ward
Interlude	Safe in the Harbor, by Eric Bogle	Mark Ryer
Remembrances	Ted Ladd, Kitty's brother Sam Ward, Kitty's son Tony Ward, Kitty's son
Meditation	Rev. Read-Brown
Reading	Wild Geese, by Wendell Berry	read by Byron Reimus
Remembrances	Mary Ann Frye Other family and friends are also invited to share a brief memory or thought about Kitty.
Interlude	Ashokan Farewell, by Jay Ungar	Dave Jackson
Responsive Reading	We Remember Them, by Roland Gittelsohn repeated response: "We remember them."
Hymn	Let it Be a Dance, by Ric Masten	performed by Christopher Nickelson-Mann
Benediction
Postlude	Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring, J.S. Bach

For the music we thank

*Christopher Nickelson-Mann, music director
First Parish in Hingham*

* * *

Gifts in Kitty's memory may be given to

*Old Ship Church,
The Sunrise Movement*

Or

ACLU