O'Brother of Mine

To my little brother
Our bond is forever, and I will see you again.
The love you had for everyone; I don't know where to begin.

As I think about all the fun and trouble we got into,

There would be nothing that I would undo.

Never thought I would feel this way,

Never thought I would see this day.

O'Brother of mine, I have one more request...

Save me some space beside you, when it's my time to rest,

I know you are alright,

Now you can go into the light...

Love Always, Lisa

Those special memories of you
Will always bring a smile
If only I could have you back
For just a little while
Then we could sit and talk again
Just like we used to do
You always meant so very much
And always will, too
The fact that you're no longer here
Will always cause me pain
But you're forever in my heart
Until we meet again

Your Loving Cousins

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
So he put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.
Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Love Always
Your Brother, Rodney

God's Garden

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you
But you did not go alone...
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

His famous phrase: "10-4, Roger That, Dumb Dumb"

In Loving Memory...
