“Memories of Aunt Gal”

Dearest Aunt Gal:

When I was a little girl, I used to tell my friends at school that I had a "rich" aunt who lived in Gadsden. I wasn't stretching the truth, I really believed it! One of my earliest and fondest memories is of you, Uncle Glen and Princess the dog coming to visit us in Montgomery. I'm unable to recall my exact age at the time, but I'll never forget how good you smelled when you bent down to kiss me. You were powdered, perfumed, made-up, hair flawlessly coiffed.. just FANCY as all get out- and I loved it!! From that point on I took advantage of every opportunity to simply observe you. There was something in the way you carried yourself. Your impeccable taste and style drew attention, but you exuded a confidence that commanded respect.

With your blessing, my sisters and I would spend countless hours in your closets and jewelry boxes growing up. We enjoyed trying on and touching everything! Snake.. eel.. mink.. if it could be skinned and made into high-heeled pumps, handbags, or wraps.. you owned it! When I was a teenager, you dropped a pearl of wisdom that I took to heart. You said to never apologize to anyone for having nice things- as long as I was willing to work hard and earn them. Today, it's no surprise that I absolutely love perfume, make-up, heels, handbags, jewelry, and clothes after all my years of admiring you. I work hard to earn it and I refuse to apologize- just like you taught me!

My love always.

Your "Fancy-in-training" Great Niece,

Zabrina Dorsey Carroll

Our Dearest Aunt Gal,

As we lay you peacefully to rest, we will always cherish all fondest memories of the little feisty woman with such fashion sense. You were the God fearing, straightforward woman who loved her family and her pets dearly. We will always remember your loving and kind heart, and the wonderful presents during the holidays. I can see you now standing on the porch waving and crying Goodbye. This isn't Goodbye but rather a see you later. God has really gained a fashionable angel with her matching wings.

We love you
Your nieces and nephews.

A loving one from us is gone,
A voice we love is still,
A place made vacant in our home
that can never more be filled.
Loving and kind in all her ways, upright
and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true in her heart and mind,
A beautiful memory she has left behind

When The Last Farewell Is Spoken

When the last farewell is spoken, and
My eyes are closed in death,
When the silver cord is broken, and I
Draw my last breath. I shall hear
His loving voice. And I'll see Him face
To face, As I enter Heaven's portals,
There I'll sing Amazing Grace

O What a joy in that great moment.
When I see my Savior's face; and to Meet again with loved ones.
In that grand and blessed place. Then amid the Angels singing, I'll forever be at rest
Free from pain and condemnation, safely on
My Savior's breast.

When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while—
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years
But start out bravely with a gallant smile.

And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same.
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
but fill each waking hour in useful ways.

Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near,
And never, never be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky.
