

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to me."*

*With tearful eyes we watched you
As you slowly slipped away
And though we loved you dearly
We couldn't make you stay.*

*Your golden heart stopped beating
Your tired hands put to rest
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Granddaddy,
*There’s a special kind of love that grandchildren have for their grandparents.
It’s filled with respect for their wisdom and accomplishments.
With gratitude for the values they’ve given us.
With delight in the stories of our family that they remember and share.
It’s a special kind of love that is built on a lifetime of caring and giving.
It’s the kind of love that’s felt for you,
Granddaddy... today and always.*

Love Always,
