The Lord whispered into my ear saying, “Well done my faithful servant, it’s time to come home.” As life exhausted from this earth by body, the Lord was breathing eternal life into my soul. Preparing a place for me in His kingdom. As I walked thru the gates of heaven; reuniting with family and friends that has gone on before me. I will always watch over you. If you suddenly feel a gentle touch upon your face, it will be me letting you know that I am by your side. Or feel a warm embrace when no one is around, it’s me protecting, comforting, and encouraging you, my child. Let your hearts be filled with a joyous celebration. Remember the laughter that we shared throughout the years. Remember that I will always be with you all.

We Promise

We promise, we won’t look upon your grave in too much despair and grief for we know you’re asleep, Asleep in peace.

We promise, we will not hold our heads down like we are shame, instead, we will glorify your memories and name.

We promise to smile when we think of you and not become sad because we can see your smile in the twinkle of the stars.

We promise to never become discouraged because you’re not here in the flesh, because we are connected in spirit, and by the blood that runs through our veins.

A Mother, Grandmother, Sister, Aunt, Cousin and a Friend.

We all promise to stay in your memory. And live on to carry out your legacy.

We Promise.

We love, miss and will always cherish your memory.
Your family & Friends

He Knows Best

*God saw you were getting tired and a cure was not to be
So he put His arms around you, and whispered, “Come with Me.”*

*With tearful eyes we watched you and saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly, we could not make you stay.*

A golden heart stopped beating, hard working hands at rest, God broke our hearts to prove to us that He knows what’s best.
