

A heart of God stopped beating, two shining eyes at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove, He only takes the best.
God knew you had to leave us, but you didn't go alone for part of us went with you, when He took you home.
Your suffering was great at times, but God knew what was best. He whispered softly and said. "Come on home and rest".

Your sons, Jerry and Floyd

If roses grow in heaven, Lord, please pick a bunch for us, Place them in our Mother's arms, and tell her they're from us.
Tell her we love her and miss her and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for awhile.
Because remembering her is easy, we do it every day But there's an ache within our hearts that will never go away.

Your daughters, Betty, Alice, Brenda and Doris

Acknowledgement

We, the Family of the late Sister Alean S. Johnson

would like to thank everyone for words of comfort, cards, calls, and especially all the prayers which we will remember in our hearts and minds.
There are no words that can express our gratitude. May our heavenly Father continue to bless every one of you.

*I knew because of the look on your face.
I knew because for 3 days you warned me you were tired
I know because of the way I felt when I caressed your hand I know because how ready you confirmed.
I knew because you weren't worried or bothered
I knew because I cried.
I knew it was your time.
Your passing was peaceful, we can all say.
My heart is still full of sorrow, but my mind is at ease Heaven gained a strong angel who's love was pure.
I love you grandma and will continue to carry on and cherish you in my heart, Love, Marylin*

Obituary

Sister Alean Johnson, a loving wife, mother, grand-mother, great grandmother, great great grandmtother, sister, and friend. She was born February 14, 1921 in Vincent, Alabama. She was born to the late Eugene Slaughter and Lou Pearson.

On Sunday, July 14, 2019, she departed this life surrounded with love of her family.

Sister Johnson love for God her to unite with the Seleeta Baptist Church at an early age. She sang in the choir until she became disable. She served on the mission board.

She was preceded in death by her Husband, Floyd Johnson, Sr., parents, 10 siblings, 4 children, 5 grandchildren, and 3 great grandchildren.

Sister Alean’s legacy and lifetime of memories will always be cherished by the ones she love and the ones who love her: loving and devoted children 4 daughters, Betty Johnson of Alexander City, AL, Alice Rowe of Alexander City, AL, Doris Johnson of Alexander City, AL, Brenda Norris of Alexander City, AL, 2 sons Floyd Johnson (Ethel) of Alexander City, AL, Jerry Johnson of Alexander City, AL, 1brother, JT Slaughter (Dorothy) of Oklahoma City, OK, 49 grandchildren, 125 great grandchildren, and 117 great great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, special friend Ruth Hicks, and 1 god daughter Dorothy Fuller.

If we had to describe you in a few simple words,
We would simply say,
You are one incredible woman Throughout our lifetime whenever we needed something your natural maternal instinct would kick in And you would come through for us in each and every situation We cannot begin to tell you how that made us feel Knowing in our heart that there was nothing you wouldn’t do for us It left us with such a deep appreciation and overwhelming gratitude to have such a loving and sweet grandmother, great grandmother, and great great grandmother like you in our life You mean the world to us, Grandma
All we have to do is look into your eyes to see The love and adoration you have for us And we can only hope that you see the same love and adoration in our eyes Because we promise you, Grandma, it is surely there

We love you,
your Grandchildren,
Great Grandchildren, and Great Great Grandchildren
