Reflections of Life

Lakressa was born one of eight children to Jennie Lou Robinson. She accepted Christ at an early age and was a member of Great Bethel Baptist Church.

Lakressa was a hard worker from the age of 16 until her health failed. She worked and retired from Russell Corporation and Wal-Mart. Then, she worked at Brown Nursing Home and the Veterans Nursing Home all located in Alexander City, Alabama.

Lakressa was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Lewis Knight.

On Wednesday, April 8, 2020, the Lord said, "It's time to rest from your labor."

Lakressa leaves to cherish her memories, Daughters: Lakissia (Frendick) Perry and Tyesha Benson. Two grand kids: R'Tavzah Culpepper and Oras Driver, Jr. Four brothers: Rodney (Tiffany) Robinson, Warren Robinson, David (Tiffany) Robinson and Johnricus Robinson. Two sisters: Joanne Robinson and Sacra (Rev. Al) Lawson all of Alexander City, Alabama. A host of nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family, and friends. Two special friends: Stacey Orr and Taeresa Horton,

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom filled room, why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not too long; and not with your head bowed low,
Remember the love that we once shared, Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take, and each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friend we know, and bury your sorrows in doing good cheer, "Miss me, but let me go."

Interment
Great Bethel Baptist Church Cemetery
Alexander City, Alabama

God saw you were getting tired
And a care was not to be
So He put His arms around yu,
And whispered, "Come to me."
With tearful eyes we watched you
And you saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
a golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts and proved to us
He only takes the best.

Your loving Children

Now Enter

You lay upon the wing of angels
You did respond between heaven and earth
go now in peace and feel your soul
Blossom in the splendor
There you'll sob no more,
But be lifted to the peace crowned heights of angels.
The heavens will be a brighter place for having received a soul
As beautiful as yours.

Your Grandchildren
