TRIBUTE

I GO TO A PLACE

I look across the room, and I see sad faces instead of smile. Heads in hands, tears dripping eyes.

Why are you crying?

Listen to me.....Don't cry.

I'm in God's hands now, and I go to a place where there is no more pain. A place where hymns fill the air like summer rain.

I GO TO A PLACE

And I ask each of you not to cry for me. My daycare sunny, and my nights are calm. Jesus is standing besides me.

I go to a place because my time had come, and my work on earth was done.
Lord knows I would like to have stayed, but God wanted me here with his son.

So, don't cry for me. Rejoice instead. For eternity lies straight ahead. Know you are sad, and that's okay. I'm gone, but I'm not dead.

I GO TO A PLACE. Another world where pain and sorrow do not exist. Peace and comfort are my pillows now, and all of you- I will surely miss.

With love
Mother, Sisters, Brothers
