

A collage of 20 photographs showing various family members, including adults and children, in different settings like beaches, homes, and outdoors. Some photos have captions like "Grandparents Day" and "Forever my Lady". The photos are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping. The subjects are mostly Black people, and the images capture candid and posed moments of family life. The captions are placed directly on the photos: "Grandparents Day" is on a photo of a man and a young girl in the bottom left; "Forever my Lady" is on a photo of a woman in a pink skirt in the bottom right; "Happy Thanksgiving" is on a photo of a family in the middle right. Other photos show groups of people on a beach, a woman and child indoors, a man and woman outdoors, and various group shots of family members.

OBITUARY

Karona Turner born Karona M. Parker March 22, 1967 to Lillian Parker and the late Charles Parker. She leaves to cherish her special memories Vonda Parker, (Alexander City, AL.) Sharlena & Bob Teresko, (Alexander City, AL) and LeCedric Parker (Goodwater, AL.) She also leaves her children Shekera Parker (Opelika, AL) and Early Parker (Goodwater, AL) and a beloved son LaBrandon Parker. Karona has a total of six grandkids: Serenity Mckinney (Anniston AL) Elaysia Flowers (Alexander City, AL) Makyla Winston (Opelika, AL) Elijah Parker (Alexander City, AL) Marlei Winston (Opelika, AL) Ly'jaiden Davis (Alexander City, AL.) She also leaves her special son as he would say Andrew Ashley (Goodwater, AL). Karona has a host of Aunts, Uncles and cousins. Special friends in her life as well as family: Gwendelyn & Ted Maxwell, Charlene and Lawrence Spivey, Lelia & Melvin Jacobs and Sharon Jones all of Goodwater, AL.

Karona was well known for helping others in her community. She was well respected as a personal Home Health Aid taking on private care. She also spent time working in Goodwater's nursing home, school and local stores. She really enjoyed time with her kids and family but being amongst Jehovah was her greatest accomplishment. She learned to live her life and love for Jehovah. A scripture she would share during this time is John 5: 28, 29 "Do not be amazed at this time for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out."

My Mom!

Mothering is a nature, natural and pure
A love giving so easily coming from within you.
Ingredients to the recipe you had and also found.
Creating life to be fond of living abound.
Making moments to memories that will last forever.
Teachings that prepared us to be more than clever.
Giving in all of you do, choosing us to be here with you.
Sharing your life, giving respect, always preparing us for what's next.
A duty so vast, yet so profound I'm glad I had you around.
The best is yet to come and the job is never done.
I'm thankful for you giving meaning to that is my Mom.
Love Shekera

"Always in my heart, no matter what my granny was my best friend."
Makyla

"I Love you and I miss you hope to see you soon"
Marlei

"I'm Sorry you died love you so much stay by my side always"
"Forever in my heart Granny and I'll never forget you"
Lay

"Granny I hate you had to go so soon to shorten my time with you but I know you are in a better place instead of being here with me at this moment in time Love Always your Grand Nanny"
