Obituary

Howard Cereus Davis was born to the late Mary Jennings Davis and Howard Davis on October 22, 1979 in Sylacauga Alabama. He attended the Alexander City School System. At an early age he attended the O Street A.O. H Church of God, where Elder Marvin Smith Jr. was the Pastor.

Cereus was known for his kind heart and his willingness to help others. On Thursday, February 25, 2021, Cereus transitioned from this earthly life.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Mary Jennings Davis and Howard Davis, his big brother Tyangus Anderson, grandparents, James and Gladys Jennings and Ada T and Stokes Davis.

He leaves to cherish his memories: One daughter, Breasia Smith, of Alexander City. Two sons, Jamari Hutchins of Alexander City and Michael Lamar of Montgomery Alabama. Two grandchildren, Khylen and Khy'Asia Smith of Alexander City. One Sister, Sharon Burns of Sylacauga, Alabama. One Nephew, Alonta Burns of Sylacauga, Alabama. Six aunts, Wanda (Levi) Law, Jewel Kelley of Alexander City, Alabama. Waydean Payne of Kellyton, Alabama. Barbara (Ray) Henderson of Birmingham, Alabama. Phyliss Russaw of Goodwater, Alabama. Two great aunts, Lottie (George) Mosley of Madison Kentucky and Betty Spinks of Anniston, Alabama. Three uncles, James Michael (Sherry) Jennings, J.C. Doss of Alexander City and Matthew Davis of Sylacauga, Alabama

A special Aunt Shirley Faye Jennings Holley of Alexander City and a Special little cousin, Algajuan Sandlin (who he called Nep) of Anniston, Alabama

IF TEARS COULD BUILD A STAIRWAY

If tears could build a stairway
and thoughts a memory lane
We would walk right up to heaven
And bring you home again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say good-bye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why.

Our heart's still active in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store

Since you will never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you will always stay!

Cereus, we will forever cherish all of the love and memories that we have shared with you. You were a special person, and held a special place. Someone we loved dearly and who can never be replaced.

Always in our hearts,

Your Loving Family
