Obituary

Ms. Sylvia Bradford begin her life journey on September 06, 1976 at Russell Hospital to the parents of the late Mr. Larry Bradford and Mrs. Carolyn Gaddis of Goodwater, AL.

Sylvia graduated from Central High School and then proceeded to Alabama State University. She gained her wings on May 11, 2021 at Madison Hospital in Madison, AL. Sylvia was a dedicated, fun, and loving mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and cousin to many, but most of all her kindness and love for the Lord will be greatly missed but always remembered.

Sylvia was preceded in death by her father Larry Bradford, stepfather J.T. Gaddis, grandmother Molly Thomas, and great grandmother Elizabeth Patterson.

Sylvia leaves to cherish her loving memories: three daughters: Terica Owens of Birmingham, AL, Tykia Bradford of Madison, AL, London Bradford of Madison, AL; one granddaughter: Bella Shamery of Birmingham, AL; A loving mother Carolyn Gaddis; two sisters: Sheranda Jackson(Billy) of Sylacauga, AL, and Kendra Dunn of Sylacauga, AL; three brothers: Fione Williams (Laverne) of Madison, AL, Lloyd Bradford of Birmingham, AL, and Beniah Bradford of Goodwater, AL and host of loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and friends

The beautiful woman with the hard exterior, mustered up a smile that filled my heart with warmth. The life of the party, the most caring and daring woman who said whatever was on her mind. Such a warm aura and strong personality. We were drawn to it like moths to a flame. What a gorgeous name she had, Sylvia. A name I can not bear to say in the past of tense. She loved so hard you would never be able to question how she feels. We follow her around, hot on the back of her heels. The woman who made me who I am today, lord knows I wish you could just stay. But we have to let you go like the free spirit that you are, and I know you aren't far. Standing here with me as I read this to the people you left behind. I swear to you mom we will all heal with time.

With love, Tykia
