Psalm 141

Lord, I cry unto thee: make haste unto me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee. <sup>2</sup> Let my prayer be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. <sup>3</sup> Set a watch, O Lord, before my mouth; keep the door of my lips. <sup>4</sup> Incline not my heart to any evil thing, to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties.

<sup>5</sup> Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a kindness: <sup>[1]</sup> and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities. <sup>6</sup> When their judges are overthrown in stony places, they shall hear my words; for they are sweet. <sup>7</sup> Our bones are scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth. <sup>8</sup> But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the Lord: in thee is my trust; leave <sup>[2]</sup> not my soul destitute. <sup>9</sup> Keep me from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the workers of iniquity. <sup>10</sup> Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst that I withal escape. <sup>[3]</sup>

*May the works I've done speak for me.
May the works I've done speak for me.
When I'm resting in my grave,
There's nothing more to be said;
May the works I've done speak for me.*
