Obituary

Joe Nathan Greathouse was born to the late Grady and Mrytis Greathouse on November 3, 1949 in Tallapoosa County, Alabama.

Joe, Also known as Spoon to many of his friends and family, attended Council High School where he graduated with the class of 1969. Spoon's life journey has truly been a blessing to everyone he has encountered beginning with his youth. Spoon peacefully and swiftly passed away on March 14 at his home with his daughter and granddaughter at his bedside. While in high school, Spoon was an avid sports player.

After completing high school, Spoon joined his father in the fields working on the farm, then deciding to travel and work. After many years of traveling working around the southern and northern states he began his career in textiles at Russell Mill. He worked for a total of 39 years.

Mr. Greathouse was preceded in death by his wife, Dorothy Faye; Mother and father, Sister Mae Ruth Johnson and Brother Grady Lee Greathouse.

He leaves memories that will forever be cherished in the hearts of his loved ones including his loving daughter, Shirley Holley of Millbrook, AL. One Granddaughter, ShaParis Mitchell of Millbrook, AL. One Grandson, Semajay Holley of Millbrook, AL. Three great grandchildren: Paisley Hutchins of Alexander City, AL; Braylen Holley of Alexander City, AL, and Gianna Faye Taylor of Millbrook, AL. One sister, Bettye Doris Belyeu of Alexander City, AL. Three sister in laws: Shirley (Cecil) Crayton of Jackson's Gap, AL, Annie Doris Brooks of Alexander City, AL, and Tracy Blakely of Atlanta, GA. A special friend, June Williams; A host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

The years will always roll on by and time will always pass, but every memory I have of you will definitely always last. I like to smile when I think of you. I try not to be sad. It's pretty easy to do with all the good times that we've had. But sometimes I can't help it, and memories leak out of my eyes, and I quickly try to brush them away. I know you wouldn't want me to cry. I don't know how it's possible, but I love you more now than I did then, and I really cannot wait until the day that I see you again.

and never ever let you go.
Every day that passes by
I miss you more and more.

Because, Granddaddy, I know I would take hold of

I'm okay

Love Always, Pam

I know all of you are full of heartache, sorrow, & pain.
I know you miss me already and think things will never be the same.

But don't worry about me, I'm okay.

Neither one of us ever expected my life to end this way. But because of Gods Amazing Grace you can smile because I'm okay.

Remember our yesterday's, laugh about the good times and forget the bad. If you think of me being in heaven you won't be so sad.

No my life wasn't perfect no man will ever be but I'm ok because Jesus has set me free.

Smile, live on and love because Spoon will be okay!

Love Shirley, Pam, & Majay
