Acknowledgement

At a time like this when sorrow invades the heart and home,
it means so much to have loving family and friends.
Thank You for each kind expression of sympathy,
which will always be remembered.
May God keep each of you.

TOGETHER AGAIN

A reunion occurred in Heaven this week of the sweetest and most joyful kind
As Jute's spirit moved beyond this earth released from her mortal life.
And what a reunion it must have been! A joy beyond our conceiving.
    When a daughter met her parents in Heaven again,
    Ending years of dignified grieving.
Although we will miss them terribly and will long for them with deepest grief.
    We are reminded that love is more powerful than death
    And this knowledge gives us comfort and peace.
We can still feel their love surround us; giving us a desire to continue on.
    To try our best to live our lives well in the ways they would have done.
    For we know this isn't the only reunion,
    Someday we'll be called to be with them.
    For life can lead us to greater happiness
    With the Lord and our loved ones in Heaven.

Life Profile

Ms. Brenda Denise Kinard was born on August 13, 1965, in Laurens County, South Carolina to the late Bob C. Kinard and Betty Ann Suber Kinard. She departed this life and entered Eternal Rest on Friday, July 01, 2022, at Summerville Medical (Trident) Hospital in Summerville, South Carolina.

She attended the public schools of Laurens County, South Carolina and was a graduate of the Clinton High School Class of 1983 in Clinton, South Carolina. She was a member of the New Ashley Baptist Church in Summerville, South Carolina.

For many years, "Jute," as she was called by many, was employed with the South Carolina Department of Disabilities Special Needs at Whitten Center in Clinton, South Carolina until her retirement.

She was preceded in death, in addition to her parents, by her maternal grandparents: Roy H. Suber, Sr. and Carrie McMorris Suber; her paternal grandparents: Joe and Etta Kinard; and two nephews: Alveunt S. Kinard and Aramis Peterson.

Brenda leaves to cherish her fond loving memories, three brothers: Bobby (Virginia) Burton, Tony (Ida) Kinard both of Clinton, SC, and Anthony (Jackie) Kinard of Inman, SC; two sisters: Jaquelyn Burton of Joanna, SC and Barbie Kinard of Spartanburg, SC; three aunts: Jessie P. Kinard of Joanna, SC, Deborah Suber Jones Middleton of Summerville, SC, and Mamie Samuel Suber of Spartanburg, SC; three uncles: Herbert Suber of Clinton, SC, James Calvin Suber of Spartanburg, SC, and James Middleton of Summerville, SC; one great aunt, Maggie McMorris Mason of Clinton, SC; five nieces; four nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

The Twenty-third Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
