OUR MOTHER

*Our mother was a beautiful soul and she lived a beautiful life.
God blessed her with ninety-two years of life and happiness.
She shared her love with many, and she was loved by all.
She always provided what we needed and taught us right from wrong.*

Her love and support were Shown in whatever we chose to do, and she never left us alone. She was proud of us and the Upbringing she gave us made us the men and women we are today.

*We are grateful that God gave us to you and you to us.
We love you mommy and you will forever be in our hearts.*

*Forever Blessed.
Your Children & Grandchildren*

Memories...

Lit's Life Story

Mrs. Elizabeth Rice Young.

affectionately known as Ms. Lit or Granny peacefully transitioned on Friday, November 4, 2022, at the National Healthcare Center in Clinton, South Carolina. She was born in Laurens County, South Carolina on July 10, 1930, to the Late Elder Lester Rice and Lula Metts Rice.

Lit was the daughter of a holiness preacher and grew up in the true holiness faith. She met and married the love of her life, the Late James "Pee Wee" Young in 1948. Shortly after, she joined Hebron Baptist Church in Clinton, South Carolina where she served faithfully for over sixty years before returning to the holiness faith and joining Chosen Generation Ministries under the leadership of the Late Gwendolyn Kinard. She was one of the three "Golden Girls" who dressed and wore their fine hats and outfits every Sunday for worship service.

She was a supervisor at the South Carolina Department of Disability and Special Needs, Whitten Center, and retired with over twenty-five years of state service. She believed in the importance of an education and after raising her children she attended Bell Street High School Adult Education Program and received her high school diploma in 1979. Elizabeth was a life member of the McCoy, Fuller, Jenkins VFW Post 5932, the Morning Glory Chapter No.191-Order of the Eastern Star, and the Women's Aide Society. She touched the lives of many, and her love was shown throughout the community.

She adored her family and enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was the matriarch of the Rice family, and she was our very own "Queen Elizabeth." She leaves to cherish her loving memories, three sons: Willie Young of Forestville, MD, Curtis Young of Woodbridge, VA, and James Gilliam of Clinton, SC; one daughter, Shirley Jenkins of Clinton, SC; fourteen grandchildren; twenty-four great grandchildren; nine great-great grandchildren; one son-in-law, James "Jimmy" Jenkins of Clinton, SC; one daughter-in-law, Corinne Gilliam of Clinton, SC; two sisters: a devoted sister, Margaret R. Miller and Viola Chambers both of Clinton, SC; five sisters-in-law: Lela Mae Rice of Greenville, SC; Aurelia Peake and Polly Calhoun both of Washington, DC; Gwendolyn Long of Temple Hill, MD, and Nancy Martin of Clinton, SC; two brothers-in-law: Thomas Long of Temple Hill, MD and Henry Calhoun of Washington, D.C.; and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews, other relatives, and friends.
