ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family expresses sincere gratitude to all who found so many ways to help, by sharing your love and kindness, your acts of friendship, or just by being there for us during the passing of our loved one.
Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

May God keep each of you.

OBITUARY

Mr. Hugh Charles Williams was born in Laurens County, South Carolina on August 21, 1944, to the late Frank Williams and Irene Smith Williams.

He attended the public schools of Laurens County, South Carolina.

He was a member of St. Vaughnville Baptist Church in Chappells, South Carolina.

Hugh was employed for many years with the Laurens County School District 56.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Ida Mae Williams; and two sons: Charles A. Williams and Willie Lindsay.

On Friday, January 27, 2023, Mr. Hugh Charles Williams departed this life at his home and journeyed from labor to reward at the age of seventy-eight.

He leaves to cherish his fond loving memories his son, Christopher (Melissa) Williams of Enoree, SC; two daughters: Alfreda Philson of Clinton, SC and Ophelia Williams of the home; eight grandchildren: Terrance Williams of the home, Arthur Lee (Melissa) Philson III of Rock Hill, SC, Alexander Goggans of Cross Hill, SC, Gerard Goggans of Laurens, SC, Latoria Goggans of Simpsonville, SC, Quentin Watts of Laurens, SC, Chazanne Williams of Greenville, SC, and Chrystal Williams of Enoree, SC; two step grandchildren; thirteen great grandchildren; two sisters-in-law: Dorothy Richard of Cross Hill, SC and Helen Grayson of New York; two brothers-in-law: Tommy Richard of Cross Hill, SC and Sammy Leake of Greenwood, SC; his devoted companion, Mary Lomax of Greenwood, SC; three special friends: Jannie Hill, Ruber Grant and Jake Brown; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

IF TEARS COULD BUILD A STAIRWAY

If tears could build a stairway and memories were a lane,
I would walk right up to heaven and bring you back again.

No farewell words were spoken. No time to say goodbye.
You were gone before I knew it and only God knows why.

My heart still aches with sadness and secret tears still flow.
What it meant to lose you no one will ever know.

But now I know you want me to mourn for you no more.
To remember all the happy times life still has much in store.

Since you'll never be forgotten I pledge to you today
A hallowed place within my heart is where you'll always stay.
