

I IMAGINE

I imagine that after you crossed over to perfection
You enjoyed a few moments of sweet reflection.
Maybe your first thoughts were of the family you left behind.
Maybe it was your favorite memories of us that came to mind.

I imagine you are being comforted by familiar faces.
Their welcoming arms pull you into their embraces.
I imagine that you are relieved and there is no more fear,
That your heart is full of joy, happiness, and cheer.

I imagine that at times, your spirit will be near,
And you'll be proud of what you see and hear.
I imagine you seeing an old world through new eyes,
As you watch us say our final goodbyes.

Just know that when you left, you did not go alone.
You took pieces of us with you on your journey home.
We'll tell stories and talk about how much we love you,
And I imagine you'll whisper, "I love you, too."
