

PRECIOUS
MEMORIES

Don't Cry For Me

Don't Cry For me.
Don't shed a tear.
The time we shared
Will always be.
And when I'm gone,
Please carry on.
Don't Cry for me.

Acknowledgement

Giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Ephesians 5:20

We know our pain will decrease and what will remain will always be.
Love all whom you hold dear. Precious is the time you share.
Do not wait for tomorrow, for tomorrow may not be...
Thank you for keeping us in your thoughts and prayers.

GOD DOES WHAT ONLY GOD CAN DO

While looking down from Heaven, God took notice of her pain.
And knew at that moment on Earth she would not remain.
So, He whispered her name which was carried by the wind.
Her pain and worries- only God could mend.
He knew that her family and her friends, too,
Would miss her truly, but God does what only God can do.
Now, she wears a white robe, and has her wings, too.
God does what only God can do.
Rest in Peace...

Obituary

Ms. Shantella Tameka Lee was born on March 18, 1985 in Abbeville, South Carolina to the Ella Lee of Abbeville, South Carolina and Quentin Spearman of Columbia, South Carolina. She was reared in the home of her grandparents Regina Lee and Samuel Agnew.

She attended the public schools of Abbeville County, South Carolina.

Ms. Lee was a member of Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church in Abbeville, South Carolina.
