

I AM FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

Acknowledgement

The family expresses sincere gratitude to all who found so many ways to help, by sharing your love and kindness, your acts of friendship, or just by being there for us during the passing of our loved one. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered. May God keep each of you.

OBITUARY

Mr. Willie C. Foggie was born in Laurens County, South Carolina on January 28, 1938 to the late Henry Foggie and Ella Mae Shumphert.

He attended the public schools of Laurens County, South Carolina and was a graduate of the Sanders High School. He was a member of Laurel Hill Baptist Church in Waterloo, South Carolina.

“Moody,” as he was so lovingly called, was the owner and operator of Foggie’s Barber Shop which he founded in 1962. He loved cutting hair yet he was also in the forestry business.

He also enjoyed helping in the community and participated in many different organizations. These include: the Clemson Exchange, the Highway Patrol Board, the Forestry Board, and the NAACP. He received many accolades throughout his lifetime for his service throughout the community and beyond.

Foggie’s Barbershop was featured in 2004 on the Learning Channel the television series “Town Haul.” Six projects were renovated for the makeover, including Little River Park and Amphitheater, and Foggie’s Barber Shop. The article can be found at:

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Mattie Pearl Foggie; his son, Anthony Foggie; two brothers: Henry Foggie, Jr., and George Foggie; and one sister, May Frances Watson.

On Tuesday, March 30, 2021, Mr. Willie C. “Moody” Foggie departed this life at Self Memorial Hospital in Greenwood, South Carolina and journeyed from labor to reward at the age of eighty-three.

He leaves to cherish his fond loving memories four sons: Orlanda (Cornelia) Watts of Columbia, SC, Perry (Robin Gwinn) Foggie of Greensboro, NC, Gerald (Wanda Gielzecki) Foggie of Mauldin, SC, and Ricky Foggie of Minneapolis, MN; four daughters: Willie Pearl Foggie (the late Reverend Odell) Cook of Laurens, SC, Debra (James) White of Waterloo, SC, Phyllis (Eddie Freeman) Latimore of Ninety-Six, SC, and Kathy Foggie of Greenville, SC; seventeen grandchildren: Chauncy Cook, Charaka Cook, Tiffany Latimore, Missy Latimore, Brittany Latimore, Juan Foggie, Trae Foggie, Sean Foggie, Adriane Gwin, Jazzmin Foggie, Ricky Foggie, Jr., Diamon Foggie, Trae Foggie, Ashley Watts, Kera Watts, Olivia Taylor Foggie, and Sidney Foggie; twenty-two great grandchildren; three brothers: Robert Foggie, Leroy Foggie, and Bobby (Catherine) Foggie; three sisters: Vivian Lee and Ethel Mae Cunningham of Clinton, SC; and Aileen Foggie; his devoted caregiver, Kathy Grant of Waterloo, SC; and a host of neices, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Moody Foggie and Foggie Barbershop has been a pillar of the community of Laurens County for many generations. His presence will greatly be missed by many.
