

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family would like to extend our heartfelt thanks for the outpouring of love shown to us during this difficult time.

Your support and kind acts have not gone unnoticed.

We continue to solicit your prayers as we face the days ahead.

May God keep each of you.

GOD'S GARDEN

God looked around His garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth and saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest.

God's garden must be beautiful; He always takes the best.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb,

So, He closed your weary eyelids and whispered, "Peace be thine".

It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone,

For part of us went with you the day God called you home.

OBITUARY

On January 4, 1959, the angels sang out that a child, Dwayne Theodore Goldsmith, was born and we were so elated.

He was educated in the public schools of Capital Heights, Maryland and was a graduate of the Central High School Class of 1977 in Capital Heights, Maryland. After graduating, he joined the United States Army.

At an early age, Dwane attended Sergeant Presbyterian Church in Washington, D. C. In 1983, in his early twenties, he accepted Jesus Christ into his life. He eventually moved to Laurens, South Carolina where he attended Gospel Tabernacle Church. He was a member there for at least fifteen or more years where he played the guitar which he loved so dearly in the church band. He was more recently affiliated with White Plains Baptist Church in Mountville, South Carolina.

On October 26, 1992, he was united in marriage to Selena Chappelle. To this union came four sons.

Mr. Goldsmith was an entrepreneur who built Goldsmith Floors into a family run contracting service which still operates today. He was also employed at Henkel in Enoree, South Carolina where he was employed for many years as a trainer at their industrial facility until his retirement in 2017 due to health concerns.

Dwane enjoyed live musical performances of old school R and B, Funk, and Jazz. He also enjoyed mentoring young males through Sunday Basketball Games. He also enjoyed bowling, gardening, playing his guitar, and Martial Arts- Wing Chung.

In addition to his father who passed away in May 2020, he was preceded in death by his son, Micah Goldsmith (March 2016); and his younger brother, Kevin Goldsmith (February 2005).

On Thursday, April 1, 2021, Mr. Dwane Theodore Goldsmith departed this life at Prisma Health Greenville Memorial Hospital in Greenville, South Carolina and entered the arms of Jesus to begin his Eternal Rest at the age of sixty-two.

He leaves to cherish his fond memories a loving wife of twenty- nine years, Selena C. Goldsmith; three sons: Philip (Deserai) Goldsmith, Rashod Chappelle, and James M. Goldsmith; two grandchildren: Avion Chappelle and Zariah Chappelle; his mother, Reverend Sadie Goldsmith; three aunts: Frances Bryce, Clemmie Hunter, and Joan Goldsmith; three uncles: Timothy Hunter, Kenneth Goldsmith, and David Goldsmith; a special cousin, Mia Hunter Smith; and a host of other relatives and friends.
