Acknowledgement

During times of bereavement, we realize how much our family and friends really mean to us. Your expressions of sympathy will always be remembered. Tomorrow is not guaranteed. Don't allow a day to pass without showing love ones how much they mean to you!

Farewell, Dear Mother

Somewhere in my heart beneath all my grief and pain,
Is a smile I still wear at the sound of your dear name.

The precious word is 'MOTHER', she was my world you see,
But now my heart is breaking cause she's no longer here with me.

God chose her for His angel to watch me from above,
To guide me and advise me and know that I'm still loved.
The day she had to leave me when her life on earth was through,

God had better plans for her, for this, I surely knew.

When I think of her kind heart and all those loving years,
My memories surround me and I can't hold back the tears.

She truly was my best friend, someone I could confide in,
She always had a tender touch and a warm and gentle grin.

I want to thank you, Mother, for teaching me so well,
And though the time has come that I must bid you this farewell.

Obituary

Mrs. Patricia Mayes Washington, 68, was called from labor to reward on July 14, 2021, to rest in the Master's Arms at Prisma Health in Greenville, South Carolina. She was born on July 14, 1953, to Corrine Grant McBeth and Albert Mayes. She was reared in the home of her aunt and uncle John Henry and Margret Grant and her aunt Emma Grant.

She attended the public schools of Laurens County, South Carolina. She was a member of the Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in Cross Hill, South Carolina where she served as a member of the Bethel Choir until her health declined.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her husband, Carrol Washington, Sr.; a brother-in-law, Johnny Washington, Jr.; and a friend more-like a sister, Betty T. Simpson.

She is survived by three sons, Daryl L. Mayes of Greenwood, SC, Michael A. Mayes of Clinton, SC, and Carrol Washington, Jr. of Ridgeway, SC; one sister, Linda C. Bluford of Laurens, SC; seven cousins: Willie J. Grant, Robert E. Grant, Milton Grant, Melvin Grant, Virginia Kinard, Carolyn Jackson, and Emma J. Grant; five special nephews: Clyde Tribble, Robert Washington, and John T. Washington all of Clinton, SC, Gary E. Bluford of Laurens, SC, and Charles E. Bluford, Jr. of Mountville, SC; two special nieces: Emily E. Bluford and Rashinda E. Bluford both of Clinton, SC; a special friend, Juliet Cook of Mountville, SC; and a host of other loving relatives and friends to mourn her passing.
