Bennett- a neighbor and faithful caregiver- of Cross Hill, SC, and Pamela (Russell) Grant of Mountville, SC; three nieces; nine nephews; four great nieces; four great nephews; four aunts; five uncles; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Two nephews who she adored and helped raise: Marcus M. Grant of Laurens, SC and Mario F. Peterson, Jr. of Atlanta, GA; a goddaughter, Leeangel (Tony) Williams of Fountain Inn, SC and a god sister, Virginia Dillard of Clinton, SC.

She had five lifelong friends that she considered as sisters: Myra Abanthey, Dorothy Lee Grant, Clematine Jones, Dell Cunningham, and Beverly (Pop) Jones; two dedicated cousins: Clay Fuller and Brenda Barteel who was also one of her loving and devoted caregivers.

Angela was a mother figure to all of her siblings, nieces, and nephews whom she loved dearly. She was also a faithful member of Bethel Missionary Baptist Church in Cross Hill, South Carolina until her health declined.

Angel was always there to help her family and always had a funny way to make them smile. Although she is resting with our Lord, her presence and memories will always live on in our hearts.

We love you Angel... Always.

My Lord Is My Strength

Give me strength to endure these trials
Through all of my tests...

To forever know I'm blessed-

My joy, my sadness, my heartaches, my pains-
To forever now my Heavenly Home I'll gain.

My Lord give me strength.

Guide me through the day and the night.

Let your marvelous Holy Light

Empower me to fight-

To know that You're near when there's fear.

My Lord give me strength

To stand in your presence with all reverence,

To remain humble when tossed and tumbled,

To love with the love that comes from above.

My Lord Is My Strength

*To My Family,
Love Pamela Grant*
