SILHOUETTE

Could I have another moment? Another kiss, another smile,
One more chance to watch you sleep or just to sit awhile.

Ours to keep, or so we thought, we found we were mistaken.
Like most of those who've lost a child, we felt we were forsaken.

When I watched your life play through my mind, I can't believe I failed to see
The silhouette of angel wings there to set you free.

I no longer feel so angry. You were Heaven's all along, you see.
Our time will come to be with you to share eternity.
