Obituary

Ms. Lisa Ann Taylor was born in Laurens County, South Carolina on August 26, 1966, to Leroy Taylor and Josephine (Cleo) Moore.

She attended the public schools of Laurens County, South Carolina where she was a graduate of the Clinton High School Class of 1985 in Clinton, South Carolina.

Lisa was a member of Fairview African Methodist Episcopal Church in Clinton, South Carolina.

She was formerly employed at Whitten Center in Clinton, South Carolina and as a caregiver.

She was preceded in death by her granddaughter, Aaliyah Quarles.

On Saturday, December 25, 2021, Ms. Lisa Ann Taylor departed this life at National Health Care of Clinton in Clinton, South Carolina and went home to be with the Lord at the age of fifty-five.

She leaves to cherish her fond loving memories one son, Vernon Quarles, Jr.; six brothers: Leroy Taylor, Jr. Kendrick Copeland, Clifton Moore, Cleophus Moore, Jr., Theopolis Rice, and Andre Rice; four sisters: Charlene Taylor, Tanisha Taylor, Camila Boyd, and Cherica Moore; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives, and dear friends.

I Never Saw Your Wings

How is it that I never saw your wings when you were here with me? When you closed your eyes and soared to the Heavens, I could hear the faint flutter of your wings as you left. Your body was no longer on this side. Your spirit is here eternally. I see your halo shine. I close my eyes and see the multicolored wings surround me in my saddest moments and my happiest times. Mother, my angel, God has given you your assignment... always my mother--forever my angel.

You fly into my dreams and when I am asleep I feel your wings brush against my face wiping away the tears I shed since I can no longer hold you in my arms but in my heart. You earned those wings, dear mother, and you will always be my angel eternally.

Acknowledgement

Grateful for the richness of her life, the kindness of her heart, and the love of her family and friends, the family wishes to thank you for your loving concern during our hour of bereavement. May Jesus Christ, who has welcomed our loved one into Eternal Rest, bless you and your family.
