

O Lord, truly I am thy servant; I am thy servant and the son of thine handmaid; thou hast loosed my bonds. I will offer thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving and will call upon the name of the Lord. I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all His people. Praise ye the Lord.

Psalm 116:16-18

Precious Lord.

Yes, Lord, we offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving for the gift of our son, Jalon. You entrusted him to us at his birth and allowed us these 38 years with him. We watched as you developed him into an awesome man. You made him strong, healthy and courageous. You taught him through your Word to be a man of integrity. You fashioned in him a heart of compassion. We watched as he developed a good work ethic, faithfully and conscientiously going to work every day. His great love of animals was one of the many gifts that you blessed him with. We enjoyed his athletic abilities, never forgetting that those were also gifts from You. He always honored and respected us as his parents, another of your commands to Him. Thank you, Lord!

Then at Your APPOINTED TIME You took him home. And although our hearts are broken, we trust You, Lord, and thank you for the time we were given.
