

His Journey Has Begun

Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun...

Life holds so many facets, this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears, in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days or years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today, how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched, for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.

Bennie Jean Gordon

When I Must Leave You

by Helen Steiner Rice

When I must leave you
For a little while—
Please do not grieve
And shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you
Through the years,

But start out bravely
With a gallant smile;
And for my sake
And for my name
Live on and do
All things the same,

Feed not your loneliness
On empty days,
But fill each waking hour
In useful ways,

Reach out your hand
In comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you And hold you near;

And never, never
Be afraid to die
For I am waiting for you in the sky!
