

~ Obituary ~

Freddie B. Baker was born September 23, 1958 in Charleston, MS to the late Jessie Mae Weekley and the late Sandy Strickland.

Freddie B. was educated in the East Tallahatchie School District. She was an upbeat, witty and very social woman that loved her family and friends; she never met a stranger. One of her favorite quotes is, "Everyone is for themselves and God is for us all."

On Wednesday, November 1, 2017 Freddie B departed this life to spend eternity with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Her mother Jessie Mae Weekley and father Sandy Strickland both preceded her in death.

Freddie's loving memories are cherished by her four children: Tijuana "Molly" Weekly of Charleston, MS; Greg "Pencil" Weekly of Greenwood, MS; Shaniqua "Flute" Baker of Huntsville, AL; Kason "KC" Baker of Colorado Springs, CO; five grandchildren: Tashania Weekly of Birmingham, AL; Taylor Eggleston of Charleston, MS; Trederica Winters of Charleston, MS; Zon'Taeveon Weekly of Grenada, MS; Teilyn Baker of Charleston, MS; nine siblings: James (Ruth) Weekley of Water Valley, MS; Johnnie Mae (James) Davis of Charleston, MS; Mary Jean Weekly of Decatur, GA; Robert (Daphne) Weekly of Las Vegas, NV; Joe (Gwen) Weekley of Coffeeville, MS; Benny (Beverly) Weekly of Charleston, MS; Trisha (Greg) Hughes of Birmingham, AL; Tisha Weekley of Huntsville, AL; Henry Lee (Debbie) Collins of Holcomb, MS; two aunts: Ruthie Phillips and Mary Golliday both of Grenada, MS; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

"Family, I Am Free"

*Don't grieve for me for now I am free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day, to laugh,
to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left you void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah yes,
these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full I've savored much,
good times, good friends, a loved one's touch.*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
don't lengthen it now with undue grief
Lift your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, he set me free.*
