Obituary

"To everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under the heavens."

Ecclesiastes 3:1

A time to be Born...

Curtis Orlando Harris was born June 28, 1977 in Carroll County, Mississippi to Sherlie J. Bledsoe Harris Williams and the late Curtis C. Harris.

A time to Plant...

Curtis attended Marshall Elementary School and J. Z. George High school in North Carrollton, Mississippi. He later moved to Memphis, Tennessee and resided there until moving to Nashville, Tennessee.

A time to Love..

Curtis' first love was God, second - his family, and then he became the father of 4 children: Dre', Antonio, Curtis, and Dria.

A time to Embrace...

Curtis embraced life with all that he had. He was a simple man who lived every day to the fullest. He never met a stranger. He had a smile that would make you smile back.

A time to Rest...

Curtis departed this world on Friday, February 28, 2020 at Skyline Medical Center in Nashville, Tennessee.

A time to Remember...

Curtis will be forever remembered and loved by: his 4 children: 3 sons, Marcairous Dreshawn McClung of San Antonio, Texas, Antonio Brand and Curtis Orlando Bailey of Memphis, TN and 1 daughter, Shandria Ma'Hyia Bailey of Memphis, TN; his mother, Sherlie Williams of Nashville, TN; 5 sisters: Kendra Bledsoe of Murfreesboro, TN, Sharon Harris of North Carrollton, MS, Valorie Harris of Lavergne, TN, Larissa Harris of Greenwood, MS, and Latessa Williams of Nashville, TN; 2 brothers: Jakeydrone Harris of Smyrna, TN and Markus Williams of Nashville, TN; 10 nieces and nephews, 7 great nieces and nephews; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, relatives and friends who will miss him dearly.
