

I'll Be Seeing You

I am at rest, so don't cry.
It will be easier as time goes by.
As my body lies here, it is only a shell.
God has called me home,
so I say farewell.
To all my friends as you pass by,
as you are now, so once was I.
As I am now, so must you be;
prepare yourselves to follow me.
I have no worries, pains or fears,
for I'm with God,
so please dry your tears.
I love you all
and this is what I want you to do.
Put God first in your life,
and I'll be seeing you.

Obituary

Carrie Lanette Benton was born December 21, 1943 in Huntsboro Rutherford, Alabama to the late Charlie and Georgia Williams. Carrie transcended on July 29, 2017. She was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters: Diane Williams, Rosemary Williams, and Georgia Amos; and one brother, Charlie Williams.

Her true love was her commitment to God and the Lord Jesus Christ. Everywhere she went, she loved to share her faith with everyone.

She moved to East Chicago, Indiana at an early age, where she excelled in school. She graduated from Indiana University with a degree in Radiology Technology in June 1970. She was employed with St. Mary's Hospital for over twenty years. She retired in Atlanta from Southern Regional and Southwest Hospital

Carrie loved her family. She was always excited when it was time for a family reunion or any family event. She instilled that in her children.

Carrie leaves to cherish her memories her children: Candy (Rick) Collier, Donnell (Joy) Williams, Sandra Williams, Alaina (Eric) Smith, and Alencia (Quatar) Knight; stepsons: Clyde Benton and Randall Benton; grandchildren: Dameon (Nakia) Williams, Donnell (Kristie) Williams, Erin Smith, Hyslen Collier, Cameron Smith, Khloe Flemming, Tyson Knight, Dontavious Williams, and Ryan Knight; five sisters: Rose Yeager, Geneva McKinley, Ann (Willie) Amos, Esther Parker, and Cynthia Mays; one brother Cheyenne Williams; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Welcome Home

When I am gone,
release me, let me go
I have so many things
to see and do.

You mustn't tie yourselves to me
with tears,

just be happy that we had some years.

I gave you my love, you can only guess
how much you gave to me in happiness.

I thank you for the love you each have shown, but now it's time I traveled on alone.

Do grieve a while for me if you must then let your grief be comforted by trust.

It's only for a while that we must part,
so keep our memories within your hearts.

I won't be far away, for life goes on.

So if you need me,
call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me I'll be near,
and if you listen with
your heart you will hear,
All of my love around
so soft and dear.

When you must come this way alone,

I'll greet you with a smile and say

"Welcome Home".
