

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard His call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,*

*Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

2 Timothy 4:6-8

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Life Reflections

Glenda Angeline Penn-Faulk was born January 28, 1961 to James Corbett Penn and Ida Mae Penn in Spencer, Virginia. Age four, her family relocated to New York, where she would grow up, marry, and eventually raise her family. In her late teens she was led to Christ through the witnessing of her elder sibling Dorothy. Her journey of learning about the Lord was at the Bible Church of Christ, Mount Vernon, NY. Glenda's passion for learning and personal growth led her to achieve a Master's degree in Business Leadership, Bachelor's in Law (Paralegal), and Associate degree. She flourished as a successful Insurance Agent (Combined Insurance), BF Janitorial Services (Co-business owner), and Solomon, Sullivan, Romo (Paralegal).

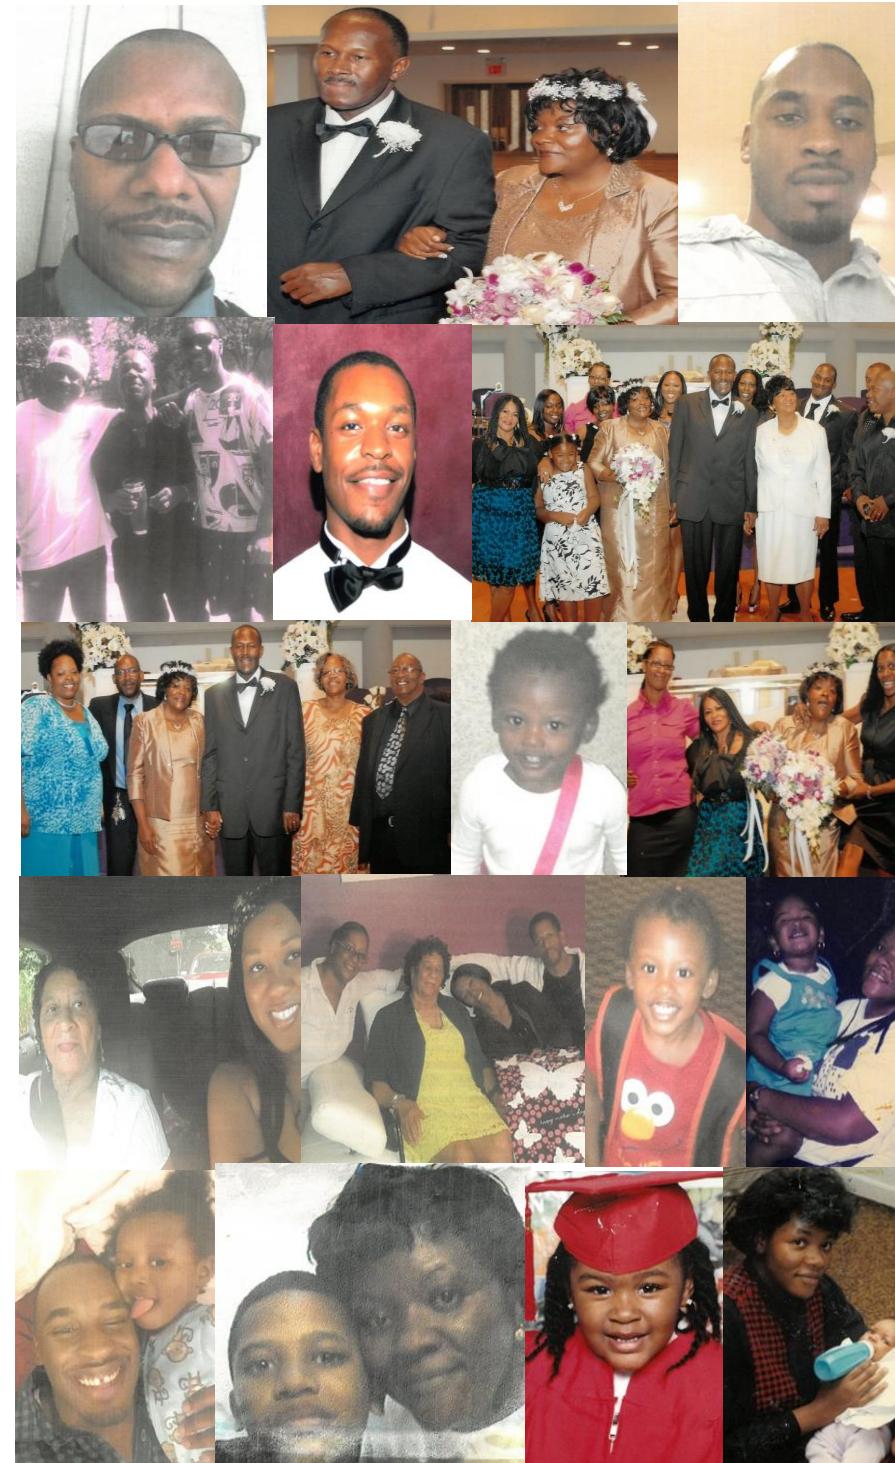

Glenda was united in Holy Matrimony to Ben R. Faulk in September 2013. She joined her husband in worship at Zion Cathedral, Long Island, NY. Glenda became a member of Shiloh Metropolitan Baptist Church 2023. Her hobbies consisted of reading and walking bridges in the city. Seeking new horizons and the embrace of sunshine, Glenda and her husband Ben chose to retire in the welcoming city of Jacksonville, FL. The move not only brought them closer to glorious weather, but also reunited Glenda with her beloved twin sister, Brenda. The bonds of sisterhood and family were cherished and nourished by Glenda, whose compassionate nature knew no bounds.

Glenda's story, filled with love, dedication, and profound impact, came to a peaceful close June 21, 2023 leaving behind a legacy that will forever be remembered. She was preceded in death by her father, James Corbett Penn; mother, Ida Mae Penn; siblings, James D. Penn, Lawrence E. Penn, and Helen D. Penn.

Glenda leaves to mourn her passing and to cherish her memories, her husband, Ben Rodger Faulk; children, Carlos Penn, Ian Gordon and Phillip Gordan; grandchildren, Carlos Penn, Jr., Iyanna Gordon, Samaya Penn, Kylie Gordon, Kourtney Conley, Tyrell Conley, Janaye Raghna; siblings, Dorothy M. Penn, Brenda A. Watford, Rose L. Schwach, Phyllis A. Penn and Melinda G. Penn; daughters-in-law, Shante Smith-Penn and Kimberly Gordan; and a host of other loving relatives and many sorrowing friends.

Glenda leaves behind a remarkable imprint on the lives of those who were blessed to know her. She is survived by her loving husband, Ben Faulk. Glenda's warm and embracing nature touched the hearts of many, as she opened her arms to all, treating them as family, expressing the love of Christ.

Glenda's departure from this world leaves an immense void, a testament to the profound impact she made on countless lives. Her memory will forever remain alive in the hearts of those who had the privilege to experience her love, kindness, and boundless generosity. As we bid farewell to Glenda, let us remember her as a beacon of light, a source of unwavering love, and a shining example of a life well-lived.
