His Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.*

For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day. 2 Timothy 4:6-8a

Obituary

Jeremiah Ezekiel Prince was born May 30, 1998 in Jacksonville, Florida to Rosemarie Quaintance-Prince and John Prince. He accepted Christ into his life in 2015 at the age of seventeen years old and joined the Tabernacle Baptist Church family.

Jeremiah was a graduate of William M. Raines High School Class of 2016. He was a loving and devoted son, brother, grandson, nephew, and uncle. Jeremiah was kindhearted and always willing to lend a helping hand. He was always so welcoming and full of laughter and joy. Jeremiah was outgoing and never met a stranger and spread joy and happiness wherever he went. He brightened the day of anyone who encountered him. Jeremiah loved wrestling, swimming, football and most importantly he loved his family.

He leaves to cherish his memory mother, Rosemarie Quaintance-Prince; father, John Prince (Alana); siblings, Amanda McBride, Miriah McBride, Arnold McBride Jr. (Melonne), Jasmine Adams, Jermaine Oliver, Kellonie Prince, Joseph Prince, and John Prince Jr; grandparents, Rosemary Bradwell (Leslie); uncle, Maurice Quaintance (Sheila); aunt, Florence Ann Prince; nephews, Gregory McBride, Ricky Jackson III, and Robert Wright III; nieces, Kamiyah Adams and Ryleigh Hicks; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, extended family, and friends.
