

Psalm 23

The Shepherd Psalm ~ A Psalm of David

*The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.*

Think Of Me

*Think of me, think of me fondly
When we've said goodbye
Remember me, once in a while Please promise me you'll try
When you find that once again you long
To take your heart back and be free
If you ever find a moment
Spare a thought for me
Song by Andrew Lloyd Webber*

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

It is with sincere appreciation and heartfelt gratitude that we express our thanks for your prayers, flowers, visits, calls, words of kindness and comfort during this time. May God bless you.

OBITUARY

Charles Curtis “CC” Jones was born October 13, 1927, to Charles Curtis Jones and Noval Lily Winston Jones in Montpelier, Virginia. Under the watchful eye of his loving grandmother, Lula Mae Winston, Charles grew up with siblings, Rosella Hooker, Fitzhugh Jones, Georgianna Starnes and Lucille Howell.

On November 6, 1945, he joined the US Army which located him to South Carolina. While visiting with a friend, he met who would become his wife, Dorothy Mae Winn. They courted and eventually joined in matrimony in Walterboro, South Carolina December 20, 1950. Soon after they expanded their family and began traveling. During his military assignments, he was stationed in Texas, Germany, Alaska, Kansas and Virginia and he proudly served in the Korean and Vietnam Wars. Charles received an honorable discharge and retired from the US Army in 1970.

He later started a new career as a bus driver for the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority. During that time, he loved traveling, the Washington Redskins, speed walking, and spending time with family and friends. He also found time during his busy schedule to transport seniors to church and doctors’ appointments, then finally decided to retire for a second time. Charles moved to Florida to spend his remaining years with his wife, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. He loved playing checkers, dominos and watching Wheel of Fortune.

Charles is survived by his wife of sixty-six years, Dorothy W. Jones; children, Laurie Joyce Jones, Dara Jennifer Forest, Charles Russell Jones, Eva Celeste Jones; grandchildren, Shelly Jones, Channell Jones, Richard Hoggs, Charles “Mook” Borders, Courtney Jones Butts, Simone Forest; beloved nephews and nieces, Carolyn Hooker, Reagan Hooker, Angela Jones, Gregory Jones, Denise Hill, Darren Jones; brother-in-law, Willie Shark and Family (SC); sisters-in-law, Betty Jones (VA), Carolyn Winn (SC); a host of other great grandchildren, nephews, nieces, cousins and friends.
